

The 11th Britton Family Reunion

Saturday and Sunday June 15th and 16th 2019

Taylor, Nebraska

Reunion events:

River tanking: tanking on the Calamus River will be on Friday June 14th, 2019. Meet at the new Ag. Building at 1:00 sharp. We will all travel together. The cost is $68.58 per tank, includes tax. The tank will fit 4-5 adults or the equivalent of that with children, (800 lbs. limit per tank). Cost includes life jackets, pole, and drop off and pick up transportation. They also rent tubes and cooler tubes. Please go to www.calamusoutfitters.com for pricing information and tax on tube /cooler rental. Also, please review the rules for river tanking/ tubing at the website. Separate payment for these activities must be included along with reunion registration payment (tanking/tubing to be paid in advance, not day of event). Kelli Hashey has once again graciously volunteered to oversee this event. Please contact Kelli with number of individuals in your party that plan to attend. Also for further questions at: dctestingsuperior@gmail.com (use Britton Family Reunion in the subject line).

Dinner at the Lazy D Restaurant: Friday June 14th 5-7pm and is Dutch treat.

Homestead Tours: Saturday morning at 10am, 4 wheel drive SUV/trucks are advised. Would appreciate volunteers to guide the tours.

Auction: Please contribute items for the auction, join in on the bidding! Not only is this fun, but auction proceeds go towards funding future reunions. We are in need of an auctioneer; please consider volunteering for this prestigious position.
